HAY'S LINIMENT is known now to thousands, as a most extraordinary remedy for these afflictions. It is impossible to tell in a newspaper, in such a manner, as to obtain full credence, the effects and benefits of this article, so general is the practice of advertisers of extolling articles of no merit. Such personal reference will be given, as to bring conviction to the minds of the most unbelieving. Will sufferers only ask among their friends, if they have not heard or known its effects; and if they do not hear it more warmly praised than any other salve, let them not get it. MISCELLANEOUS.

AHMED THE COBBLER.

CONTINUED.

An angel from heaven could not have brought more consolation to Ahmed than did the jeweller's wife. He assumed all the dignified solemnity that became his new character, and said, "Woman, I know all that thou hast done; and it is fortunate for thee that thou hast come to confess thy sin, and beg for mercy before it was too late. Return to thy house, put the ruby under the pillow of the couch on which thy husband sleeps; let it be laid on the side farthest from the door; and be satisfied thy guilt shall never be even suspected."

The jeweller's wife returned home, and did as she was desired. In an hour Ahmed followed her, and told the jeweller he had made his calculations, and found, by the aspect of the sun and moon, and by the configuration of the stars, that the ruby was at that moment lying under the pillow of his couch, on the side farthest from the door. The jeweller thought Ahmed must be crazy; but as a ray of hope is like a ray from heaven to the wretched, he ran to his couch, and there, to his joy and wonder, found the ruby in the very place described. He came back to Ahmed, embraced him, called him his dearest friend and the preserver of his life, gave him the two hundred pieces of gold, declaring that he was the first astrologer of the age.

These praises conveyed no joy to the poor cobbler, who returned home more thankful to God for his preservation than elated by his good fortune. The moment he entered the door, his wife ran up to him, and exclaimed, "Well, my dear astrologer, what success?"

"There," said Ahmed, very gravely, "there are two hundred pieces of gold: I hope you will be satisfied now, and not ask me again to hazard my life, as I have done this morning." He then related all that had passed. But the recital made a very different impression on the lady from what these occurrences had made on Ahmed.

Sittara saw nothing but the gold which would enable her to vie with the chief astrologer's wife at the Hammam. "Courage!" said she, "courage, my dearest husband!—This is only your first labor in your new and noble profession. Go on and prosper; and we shall become rich and happy."

In vain Ahmed remonstrated, and represented the danger: she burst into tears, and accused him of not loving her, ending with her usual threat of insisting upon a divorce.

Ahmed's heart melted, and he agreed to make another trial. Accordingly, the next morning, he sailed forth with his astrolabe, his twelve signs of the zodiac, and his almanac, exclaiming as before, "I am an astrologer! I know the sun, and the moon, and the stars, and the twelve signs of the zodiac; I calculate nativities: I can foretell every thing that is to happen!" A crowd again gathered round him; but it was now with wonder, and not ridicule; for the story of the ruby had gone abroad, and the voice of fame had converted the poor cobbler Ahmed into the ablest and most learned astrologer that was ever seen at Istahan.

While every body was gazing at him, a lady passed by veiled. She was a wife of one of the richest merchants in the city, and had just been at the Hammam, where she had lost a valuable necklace and earrings. She was now returning home in great alarm, lest her husband should suspect her of having given her jewels to a lover.

Seeing the crowd around Ahmed, she asked the reason of their assembling, and was informed of the whole story of the famous astrologer; how he had been a cobbler, was inspired with supernatural knowledge, and could, with the help of his astrolabe, his twelve signs of the zodiac, and his almanac discover all that ever had, or ever would happen in the world. The story of the jeweller and the king's ruby was then told her accompanied by a thousand wonderful circumstances which had never occurred.

The lady, quite satisfied of his skill, went up to Ahmed, and mentioned her loss, saying, "A man of your knowledge and penetration will easily discover my jewels: find them, and I will give you fifty pieces of gold."

The poor cobbler was quite confounded, and looked down, thinking only how to escape without a public exposure of his ignorance. The lady, in passing through the crowd, had torn the lower part of her veil. Ahmed's downcast eyes noticed this, and, wishing to inform her of it in a delicate manner, before it was observed by others, he whispered to her, "Lady, look down at the rent!" The lady's head was full of her loss, and she was at that moment endeavoring to recollect how it could have occurred—Ahmed's speech brought it at once to her mind, and she exclaimed in delighted surprise, "Stay here a few moments, thou great astrologer. I will return immediately with the reward thou so well deservest." Saying this, she left him, and soon returned, carrying in one hand the necklace and earrings, and in the other a purse with fifty pieces of gold. "There is gold for thee," she said, "thou wonderful man, to whom all the secrets of nature are revealed. I had quite forgotten where I laid the jewels, and without thee should never have found them. But thou deservest me to look at the rent below, I instantly recollected the rent near the bottom of the wall in the bath-room, where before undressing, I had hid them. I can now go home in peace and comfort; and it is all owing to thee, thou wisest of men."

After these words, she walked away, and Ahmed returned to his home, thankful to Providence for his preservation, and fully resolved never again to attempt it. His handsome wife, however, could not rival the chief astrologer's lady in her appearance at the Hammam; so she renewed her entreaties and threats to make her husband continue his career as an astrologer.

About this time, it happened that the king's treasury was robbed of forty chests of gold and jewels, among the greater part of the wealth of the kingdom. The king's treasurer and other officers of State used all diligence to find the thieves, but in vain. The king sent for his astrologer, and directed him to find the robbers, who had stolen the treasure, as well as the principal ministers, should be put to death.

Only one day of the short period given them remained. Ahmed, once he had proved true to his word, and the chief astrologer, who had made his calculations and explained his art to no purpose, had resigned himself to his fate, when a crowd of his friends advised him to send for the world-famous cobbler Ahmed, who had become so famous to his countrymen.

Two slaves were immediately despatched to Ahmed, whom they commanded to go with them to their master.

"You see the effects of your ambition," said the poor cobbler to his wife: "I am going to my death. The king's astrologer has heard of my presumption, and is determined to have me executed as an impostor."

On entering the palace of the chief astrologer, he was surprised to see that dignified person come forward to receive him, and lead him to the seat of honor, and not less so to hear himself thus addressed—"The ways of heaven, most learned and excellent Ahmed, are unsearchable. The high are often cast down, and the low are lifted up. The whole world depends upon fate and fortune. It is my turn to be depressed by fate; it is thine to be exalted by fortune."

His speech was here interrupted by a messenger from the king, who, having heard of the cobbler's fame, desired his attendance. Poor Ahmed now concluded that it was all over with him, and followed the king's messenger, praying to God that he would deliver him from his peril. When he came into the king's presence, he bent his body to the ground, and wished his majestic long life and prosperity. "Tell me, Ahmed," said the king, "who has stolen my treasure?"

"It was not one man," answered Ahmed, after some consideration; "there were forty thieves concerned in the robbery."

"Very well," said the king, "but who were they? and what have they done with my gold and jewels?"

"These questions," said Ahmed, "I cannot now answer, but I hope to satisfy your majesty, if you will grant me forty days to make my calculations."

"I grant you forty days," said the king, "but when they are past, if my treasure is not found, your life shall pay the forfeit."

Ahmed returned to his house well pleased; for he resolved to take advantage of the time allowed him, to fly from the city where his fate was likely to be his ruin. "Well, Ahmed," said his wife, as he entered the house, "what news at court?"

"No news at all," said he, "except that I am to be put to death at the end of forty days, unless I find forty chests of gold and jewels, which have been stolen from the royal treasury."

"But you will discover the thieves," said the king, "by what means am I to find them?"

"By the same art which discovered the ruby and the lady's necklace."

"The same art?" replied Ahmed. "Foolish woman! Thou knowest that I have no art, and that I have only pretended to it for the sake of pleasing thee. But I have had sufficient skill to gain forty days, during which time we may easily escape to some other city; and, with the money I now possess, and the aid of my former occupation, we may still obtain an honest livelihood."

"An honest livelihood!" repeated his lady with scorn. "Will thy cobbling, thou mean, spiritless wretch! ever enable me to go to the Hammam like the wife of the chief astrologer? Hear me, Ahmed: think only of discovering the king's treasure. Thou hast just as good a chance of doing so as thou hadst of finding the ruby, and the necklace and earrings. At all events, I am determined that thou shalt not escape; and shouldst thou attempt to run away, I will inform the king's officers, and have thee taken up, and put to death, even before the forty days are expired. Thou knowest me too well, Ahmed, to doubt my keeping my word.—So take courage, and endeavor to make thy fortune, and to place me in that rank of life to which my beauty entitles me!"

Immediately despatched to Ahmed, whom they commanded to go with them to their master.

"You see the effects of your ambition," said the poor cobbler to his wife: "I am going to my death. The king's astrologer has heard of my presumption, and is determined to have me executed as an impostor."

"By the same art which discovered the ruby and the lady's necklace."

"The same art?" replied Ahmed. "Foolish woman! Thou knowest that I have no art, and that I have only pretended to it for the sake of pleasing thee. But I have had sufficient skill to gain forty days, during which time we may easily escape to some other city; and, with the money I now possess, and the aid of my former occupation, we may still obtain an honest livelihood."

"An honest livelihood!" repeated his lady with scorn. "Will thy cobbling, thou mean, spiritless wretch! ever enable me to go to the Hammam like the wife of the chief astrologer? Hear me, Ahmed: think only of discovering the king's treasure. Thou hast just as good a chance of doing so as thou hadst of finding the ruby, and the necklace and earrings. At all events, I am determined that thou shalt not escape; and shouldst thou attempt to run away, I will inform

FOR PRESIDENT, HENRY CLAY, OF KENTUCKY

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

At a meeting of the Whig Members of the Legislature held on the 8th inst. it was voted that a Whig State Convention be held at Augusta on WEDNESDAY, the 7th day of February next, for the purpose of choosing two Whig Delegates to attend the Whig National Convention to be held at Baltimore in May next, for the nomination of candidates for President and Vice President; to determine on the time and place of holding a general Whig Mass Convention for the nomination of a candidate for Governor, and candidates for Electors of President and Vice President; and also to provide for a thorough organization for the ensuing elections. The WHIGS of the State are invited to attend and unite with the Whig Members of the Legislature in said Convention. An attendance of Whigs from the several parts of the State is earnestly desired.

Voted, That this notice be published in the several Whig papers in the State.

JOSIAH S. LITTLE, RICHARD F. PERKINS, Secretary.

Augusta, Jan. 9, 1844.

SEE FIRST PAGE.

There were a few days since certain prognostics that John Tyler had discovered the treachery of his Locofoco allies and had become so much disgusted with them on account of it, that it was thought in his future appointments he might look to the Whigs of the country. We hope in all mercy he will hunt among his friends or make himself friends among the thousands of the Whig opponents, rather than in the slightest degree bind the dead carcass of his administration upon the Whig party, just as it is fairly and finely taking the race in the presidential campaign. It was a grievous thing for the Whig party to have elected John Tyler to the vice presidency. It was a mortifying and well nigh disastrous thing that he turned traitor to the principles of the party that elevated him, when he by accident became president. The leaders of the Locofoco party flattered him, received his favors and became responsible for the measures he might adopt. There let the responsibility rest. There let John Tyler remain, in the bosom of the Loco party. The Whigs are well enough without him—better a thousand times without him, with whatever he may have to give, than with him. We hope no Whig will take office at his hands. We hope the deep condemnation he has heaped upon his own head may remain there a lasting brand on the brow of a traitor. John Tyler's influence can do the Whig party no good but may do great harm. If he cannot make his administration a part of the fact and the history of the loco party, let it forever remain in an unimportant parenthesis, rather than in any manner wrought into that of the Whig party.

The principles of the Whig party are well understood by the people and are fast receiving the sanction of the enlightened and honest hearted people as the true idea upon which our government is founded—as the most practicable approach to the spirit and essence of American democracy. These principles commend themselves to every honest heart and unprejudiced mind and they will receive the sanction of the great body of the free electors of our Republic whenever they are called upon to give an expression of their views. We saw this in the brilliant victory over corruption, intrigue and management, by the emphatic voice of the people in 1840. We see manifest indications of an equally emphatic approval of Whig principles in 1844. And so we expect to see these principles acknowledged as the true principles of genuine democracy, by the people of this country for a long series of years.

We need no oblique Tyleism nor any other ism to insure the success of Whig principles and measures. He who would aid the Whig cause must do so in love of its likeness to honest patriotic American democracy, and must enter the contest as one imbuing and delighting in this democracy of the Whig party, and willing to own its great republican character and its ability to promote the prosperity and happiness of the people and the honor of the nation.

The Skowhegan Clarion states that Mr Ephraim Parlin of Concord in Somerset County recently shot a black wolf, measuring six feet and two inches in length. Mr Ellis, of Smithfield, in the same county, an old hunter, a few days since shot an animal of the cat kind of huge dimensions but to which no one has as yet been able to give a name.

Mark Howard, the popular and efficient Whig Postmaster at Ann Arbor, Mich, has been removed and one George Danforth, a Van Buren Loco Foc, appointed in his stead. Five-sixths of the voters of the town protested against this change, but to no purpose.

The New Bedford Daily Mercury came to us in a new and elegant dress—a type, we doubt not of its prosperity. The Mercury is a strong Whig paper and deserves success.

We indebted to Col. J. W. Richardson of Gilman & Co's Express, for a fine bundle of Liverpool, London and Glasgow papers received by the Britannia. They may be seen on file in the room attached to our office, free to all subscribers to our daily paper.

The Philadelphia Gazette states that the nomination of James M. Porter, Secretary at War has been rejected by the Senate.

Development of the 'Liberty Party' Creed and Intentions.

Gerrit Smith of Peterborough N. Y. one of the great champions of the 'Liberty party' thus speaks of his own recent demonstration:

"Fairness requires me to apprise you that, should you appoint meetings for me, there will be much in my address to offend strict observers of the Sabbath: much, too, that may astonish some who number me amongst such observers. My addresses will not be what is understood by 'Religious Addresses on Slavery.' They will 'preach politics.' That sanctimonious one should roll up the whites of their eyes, and shudder with holy horror, at the thought of 'preaching politics' on the Sabbath is to be expected. 'In my own judgment there is no more important use to which the Sabbath and the pulpit can be devoted, in this country than 'preaching politics.'"

The 'Liberty Press' at Utica N. Y. for several weeks published a call for a convention to be held at Syracuse, as follows:—

"We the undersigned, persuaded that the time has now fully come, when Christians who would preserve their integrity, are loudly called upon to separate themselves from those ANTI-CHRISTIAN COMBINATIONS, known under various secular names, and FALSELY calling themselves christian churches, that still persist in neglecting to disavow the cause of the poor, to proclaim the gospel of deliverance to the captives, and the opening of the prison doors to them that are bound;—believing also in the divine institution of the christian church, and the obligation resting on christians, to associate themselves together in church relations:—

Do hereby invite a GENERAL CONVENTION of all who agree with us in these views, for the purpose of uniting in a general expression of our sentiments, and especially, to discuss, ascertain, and promulgate the TRUE principle and appropriate form and mode of church organization, as taught in the New Testament, harmonizing with the great principles of human equality, common brotherhood, and inalienable human rights."

The Syracuse Journal says:

"The notice was signed by Gerrit Smith, Alvan Stewart, Torrey, Goodell, Chapin, and about seventy others of the greater and lesser lights of political Abolition, who, failing in their endeavors to enlist churches and Ministers, as such, in their Church and State Union, have hit upon the more notable scheme of excommunicating them from all Christian fellowship and getting them out of the way by consigning them to perdition. The convention was in session two days, but we did not deem their proceedings of sufficient consequence to attend. All they want is rope. We understand, however, that the work of devising a new platform was not consummated in entire harmony, altho' a declaration of Faith, or what is the same thing in their case, a want of Faith, was finally fixed upon by the majority, and ordered, to be promulgated as true intubility. The reading occupied two hours we are told, and the Convention adjourned at the close of the second day. The number present were not as usual, and we should think the public interest in their proceedings was declining. The selfish, disorganizing, notoriety-seeking and singularity affecting conduct of the chief actors, begin to grow stale, and disgusts more than it fascinates. Most people have had enough of it.

The design of Gerrit Smith and his associates is now to organize a Political church, or to effect a union of Church and State. Whilst anti-slavery sentiments are spreading fast, far and wide, Locofoco Abolition moves slowly. They are to try to get more steam on, resolving themselves into a Political-Religious society. Whilst other denominations spend the Sabbath in ordinary and accustomed acts of devotion, prayer and praise, the 'new lights' are to preach politics. From their meeting houses, after resolving that there are no Christians in the world but themselves, they are to rush out to the polls, to bear testimony to their religious zeal.

How many of these persons, in five years, will be capable of managing their own affairs? How many of them will not die in a mad house.

The persons of sound sense, and sober, reflecting habits of mind, we should think that enough had transpired to cure them of all disposition to lend their efforts in sustaining a cause, thus wrested from its proper direction, and capable, in such hands, only of promoting a most unprofitable end. The political action of these fanatics has contributed to no result but the success of Locofocoism, and their religious action promises nothing better. Whilst we pray for the approach of that benign period when all men shall be pronounced free and equal, we are certain nothing can be gained to the cause of religion, liberty and humanity, by the encouragement of the newly attempted union of Church and Politics."

The foregoing may perhaps furnish some new light upon the following resolution passed at the late 'Liberty Party' State Convention at Augusta:—

"Resolved, That the law of God is the supreme law of the land; and that human laws, contravening that law, are so far from having any claim upon our obedience, that to obey them is a crime, that subjection to the ordinance of man for the Lord's sake cannot require us to yield to the precepts of such laws, but is fulfilled by submitting to the penalties they impose."

In connection with the "Liberty party" convention, there was a Religious Anti-Slavery Convention, composed mostly of delegates to the "Liberty party" convention, and the following, among other resolution, was passed:

Resolved, That the law of God extends its jurisdiction over all political action, as fully and absolutely as it does over any other part of human conduct, and that it is the duty of religious teachers to define and enforce this obligation.

As chroniclers of passing events we have brought together matters which appear to us to belong together and as explaining each other—There is a smack of daintiness in the Maine resolves, when disconnected from the more full, manly and definite exposition of the essence and intent of the doctrine as developed by Gerrit Smith and the New York movement. This matter furnishes food for reflection.

The abolitionists of the 3d District, in Massachusetts, have nominated John Russ, Jr. of Methuen, for Congress in place of J. G. Whitier.

"Charley, what is an Oar?" "Oh, I know, it's a stick to tickle the water and make the boat go."

Congressional Votes of Seventh District.

We give below the returns from an unusually large number of towns in so short a time after the election. It will be seen that the vote is very large. To-morrow evening we shall have returns from nearly the whole district, enough undoubtedly to determine the probable result of the election. Thus far 184 nett gain for Robinson.

LORRAINE'S PILLS,
OR VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL MEDICINE
OF THE
French College of Health, in Paris.
The following letter was received yesterday by mail from Salem. It gives another evidence of the great success of Lorraine's Vegetable Universal Pills.
SIR—Have been for many years a sufferer from the ravages of Scrofula and Cancerous Humors which at last seated on the vitals, and exhibited all the threatening symptoms of consumption. The general inability of all remedies awakened my enquiries as to the thousand different methods of cure, to most of which I had recourse without receiving benefit. I accidentally noticed a remarkable cure by Lorraine's Pills, and was induced to give them a trial. I sent to Boston and got a box. By the use of them I found immediate relief and was soon restored to a perfect state of health.
J. E. NEWHALL.
Salem, 21st May, 1841.

The following letter from J. B. Light, Esq. is worthy of notice.
SIR—I took one of Lorraine's Vegetable Pills last evening for a pain in my head, that had effected me for several days, occasioned by taking cold. I soon felt very calm, and quiet, and a state of general repose came on which had great charms, and I enjoyed one of the most comfortable and refreshing nights rest that I ever did in my life. I rose in the morning in my usual state of health, and believe it is my duty to recommend this medicine.
Yours truly, J. B. LIGHT.
Nov. 20th, 1841.

[From Boston Daily Mail.]
Somebody wisely says, that a cup loaded with jewels and flowers will not cure the headache, nor gold chains prevent the consumption. Lorraine's Vegetable Pills have done both.

I have been effectually cured of a severe case of the use of Lorraine's PILLS.
The following symptoms were in the case, but has been cured.

The general inability of all remedies awakened my enquiries as to the thousand different methods of cure, to most of which I had recourse without receiving benefit. I accidentally noticed a remarkable cure by Lorraine's Pills, and was induced to give them a trial. I sent to Boston and got a box. By the use of them I found immediate relief and was soon restored to a perfect state of health.

Salem, 21st May, 1841.

SIR—I have been for many years a sufferer from the ravages of Scrofula and Cancerous Humors which at last seated on the vitals, and exhibited all the threatening symptoms of consumption. The general inability of all remedies awakened my enquiries as to the thousand different methods of cure, to most of which I had recourse without receiving benefit. I accidentally noticed a remarkable cure by Lorraine's Pills, and was induced to give them a trial. I sent to Boston and got a box. By the use of them I found immediate relief and was soon restored to a perfect state of health.
J. E. NEWHALL.
Salem, 21st May, 1841.

SARAH SNOW was cured of a lame back in one day, when she had been unable to dress herself alone for two weeks.
Susan Jones of Boston, cured in 36 hours of lame back and side of three weeks standing.

Mrs. Bird, of Providence says, that "Lorraine's Pills have proved a real blessing to her. It has surpassed any thing that has been offered to the public notice. I have been cured of a sick headache that had afflicted me for years, by the use of Lorraine's Pills."
THE CONDITION.
The condition upon which nature gives health to man, is a watchful care to keep his stomach and bowels free from morbid and noxious accumulations. Lorraine's Pills admirably effect this, because they cleanse the bowels and purify the blood. The human body is always healthy when the bowels are regular, the blood circulates freely, and disease invincible commences when obstructions take place in the bowels.
The extraordinary virtues of Lorraine's Pills depends upon extracts of over 50 different vegetables, all so admirably combined as to purify, nourish and invigorate the human system.

PATENT MILL WHEELS.
THE Subscriber having for a long time given his attention to the construction and operation of Water Wheels, has finally succeeded in the invention of two kinds of Wheels for which he has received Letters Patent from the Government of the United States.
These Wheels are simple in their construction, cheap and durable, are easily put in operation, and are not liable like most other wheels to get out of order, they are not obstructed by back water, when the head is not diminished thereby; and the same power and speed is obtained, with about one half the quantity of water usually applied to wheels now in general use.
A great number of these Wheels are now in operation and give in all cases entire satisfaction; and for further information respecting them the following gentlemen are referred to, all of whom have some of said wheels in operation: Jacob Drummond, James B. Fiske, Amos Davis and Leonard March, Esqrs. Messrs. Fiske & Norcross, Foster & Gilman, S. P. & H. Strickland, W. T. & H. Peirce & Co. Bangor; Hon. J. S. Little, Portland; Hon. John Otis, Hallowell; F. A. Butman, Esquire, Dixmont; Robert Treat Geo. A. Peirce, Esquire, Frankfort; Daniel Dennett, Esq. Milo; Col. Henry Orne, Milton; Messrs. Fiske & Bridge, Milford; Ira Wadleigh, Esq. Oldtown; Capt. R. Fitz, Dedham; John Black and John M. Hale, Esqrs. Ellsworth; Messrs. A. Campbell & Co. Cherryfield; Daniel Harwood, Esq. Machias; Levi L. Lowell, Calais.
The above wheels are manufactured and for sale at the Iron Foundries of MESSRS. HINCKLEY & EGGERY and FRANKLIN MUZZY & Co. in this city, who are furnished with a great variety of patterns, so that Wheels of any particular description, or adapted to any given head of water, can be furnished at short notice. They are also authorized to dispose of the Patent Right for the same.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO CONSUMPTIVES!
THE TIME HAS COME!
THE Time has come when Consumption may be classed with the curable diseases.
The Subscriber announces the gratifying intelligence that he is constantly receiving from England large supplies of Bucan's Hungarian Balm of LIFE!
THE ONLY compound known to the Medical Faculty which will effect a speedy and permanent cure of that dreadful malady.
CONSUMPTION!
AND ALL DISEASES OF THE PULMONARY ORGANS.
For the last six years the Hungarian Balm has been in extensive use in Great Britain, and throughout the Continent of Europe, where it has completely astounded the Medical Faculty by its unparalleled success in the cure of the most of Consumption ever brought under their notice.—In England it has cured thousands upon thousands, of all classes, in cases of the most dangerously Consumptive character; and the English papers are full of extravagant eulogiums upon it, and upon its distinguished authors.
This Balm has also been introduced into the practice of some of the best Hospitals, Infirmarys and other Institutions in Great Britain, and has received the public sanction of the most distinguished Chemists and Professional men, as the of Pulmonary Diseases in the whole range of Pharmacy.
A Committee of seven of the most celebrated Physicians of London, who were requested by Dr. Buchanan to give their unbiased opinions of his Balm, have, under their own names, unreservedly pronounced it an
UNRIVALED SPECIFIC:
And they unhesitatingly recommend it to be kept in every family of a CONSUMPTIVE TENDENCY. The joint certificate of these Physicians accompanies each bottle of the Balm.
Dr. Buchanan has been elected an honorary member of the prominent Medical Societies of Europe, and his Balm is now so well established that liberal minded men, in the Medical profession, prescribe it for their patients, as the BEST OF ALL REMEDIES
for Pulmonary complaints and physical debility—and it is universally received as one of the standard medicines of the day.
The great merit of Dr. Buchanan's Balm is this: in all cases of Pulmonary complaints it gives IMMEDIATE RELIEF.
A single bottle will reveal its astonishing virtues; and open at once the fountain of health and strength to the afflicted.
Price of the Balm, only $1 per bottle, with full Directions, Dissertation on Consumption; Notices and Certificates of Remarkable Cures, &c.

NEW PRINCIPLES OF PURGATION
CORNARO'S
Purifying and Preserving PILLS.
THE American public has for a long time been the victim of a false and dangerous system, founded on the practice of LONG CONTINUED AND UNRELIEVED PURGATION. The evils of this system are of the most widespread and alarming character. They have reached through every vein and artery of our nation, in every city, and village, and hamlet—in every State and Territory of our vast Republic, will be found those who have suffered, or who are still suffering from the injurious effects of this system of whose practical utility the disease, decay, and utter prostration of those who test it furnish the most condemning proofs!

COMMON DRASTIC PURGATION
Scours out the system by the most improper violent means, and then leaves it, weak, low, feeble, debilitated, to regain its strength as best it may. Sometimes the consequences of this best it may, practice are worse than mere Debility. Inflamation of the Bowels, Slow Fever, Bloody Piles, and other horrible disorders are produced, simply by the want of some enervating and preserving power in the medicine employed. Sometimes the purgative organs are deeply and permanently injured, thus causing a coarse and unphilosophical practice, leaving patient AN INVALID FOR LIFE.
The alarming evils and absurdities of the old system of Purgation, have led to the introduction of a Life-giving Medicine, called CORNARO'S PURIFYING AND PRESERVING PILLS, which is established on this new and only true principle: NO PURGATION WITHOUT IMMEDIATE RESTORATION.
The use of this admirable Purgative remedy strikes a death blow to that abominable system, which by continually evacuating the bowels without any conservative or saving power, so dreadfully and fearfully prostrates and injures the unhappy patient. These Purifying and Preserving Pills are believed to constitute the perfection of medicine, being a UNIVERSAL VEGETABLE PURGATIVE, containing two great remedies combined: viz: One remedy to PURIFY FROM CORRUPTION, and another to PRESERVE FROM INJURY AND DECAY.

And for the purpose of attaining the highest degree of purity in the preparation of these Pills, Dr. Bradlee has, at a vast expenditure of time and money, invented and patented at Washington, chemical and philosophical apparatus for distilling and refining vegetable extracts, called
THE SEVEN-FOLD FURNACE,
A powerful and novel machine—having Seven Fire and Seven Alembics, with distilling, condensing and evaporating fixtures of a new and ingenious contrivance, capable of obtaining more than seven times the ordinary purity of any vegetable extract heretofore used in compounding medicine. The Balsamic and Preserving power of these Pills, also, by this invention, highly purified and refined, and so mingled with the operative medicine, that repairs all the injuries created by Purgation as soon as they are caused, and strongly fortifies the system against future corruption and decay.

Let the public be no longer deceived by the advertisements of the "one remedy" doctors, who, by their entire ignorance of the organic laws of the human system, by supposing that a medicine which purges merely, without renovating or preserving, can be a perfect remedy. For it is a fixed and immutable law of our being that there should be, in no case, Purgation without immediate Restoration; and hence it follows, and is proved to demonstration, that a Purgative which DOES NOT possess a saving or preserving power, are injurious, and injurious only, and possess NOT ONE REDEMPTIVE QUALITY.
The whole theory of common drastic Purgation, based upon unnatural and absurd laws, and they who follow it fall victims to their own folly, and too late repent their temerity.

BEWARE OF UNRELIEVED PURGATION! Purge and Preserve, or do not attempt to Purge at all.

DR. TAYLOR'S BALM OF LIVERWORT.
PRICE REDUCED.
DR. TAYLOR'S Balm of Liverwort, from 375 Bowery, New York—for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Catarrhs, Asthma, Soreness of the Chest, Pain in the side and Breast, rising of Blood, Liver complaint, Bronchitis, and all those affections of Throat and Lungs which are a source of so much suffering and unrest, so often terminating in Consumption—this remedy is highly recommended. It is purely vegetable, mild, justly and long-acted. It is purely vegetable, mild, and gentle in its effects upon the system, and can be taken in the most delicate cases, with safety as well as utility. Physicians, aware of its effects even in extreme cases, and in some instances apparently almost incurable, often prescribe it in their practice, both as a palliative and a remedy, and with the Medical Faculty generally it has met with great approbation.

CONSUMPTION.—The following remarks were taken from the last number of the Medical Magazine: "The surprising effect produced by the genuine Dr. Taylor's Balm of Liverwort, made at 375 Bowery, in consumptive cases, cannot fail striking a deep and thrilling interest throughout the world. We have so long considered this disease (consumption) incurable, that it is difficult to credit our sensation when we see persons, evidently consumptive, restored to health. Yet it is a fact of daily occurrence."
Certificates from the highest and most respectable sources, or persons who have been either greatly relieved by it, or entirely recovered from affections of the Lungs and Liver, could be furnished in abundance, but we insert only the following:
